NONI PATHWAYS

Where stability meets opportunity

Capability Statement

Independent shared living for adults returning home · Florida

Noni Pathways is a veteran-owned provider of independent shared living for adults rebuilding their lives, including people returning from prison or jail. We place referred residents within 24–48 hours, and when a short-term housing voucher ends, residents don't have to move. They can stay as long as they want on their own income or benefits.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Rapid intake: phone interview and placement within 24–48 hours of referral when a bed is open.
- No day-29 cliff: short stays and long stays in the same bed, covering a 3–6 month case management window and beyond.
- Case manager on staff: ID and Social Security cards, SSI applications for those who qualify, SNAP, resumes and connections to care, started before release where possible.
- Supervision-friendly: address and house rules sent to the supervising officer in advance; curfew, home visits and special conditions supported.
- Updates with consent: with the resident's written consent, our case manager checks in with their case manager or officer.
- Background-inclusive: every application is reviewed individually; no blanket exclusions.

POPULATIONS SERVED

Adults returning from prison or jail, people under probation, parole or other supervision, people leaving treatment or reentry programs, veterans, and residents on SSI, SSDI or VA benefits. Current homes serve men; a separate, smaller home for women is coming soon.

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Second Chance homes that meet Florida's residency distance requirements for people required to register.
- A mixed resident population, which keeps homes stable.
- Led by a family of military veterans, educators and service professionals.
